

Maryland for benevolent and charitable purposes, its certificate of incorporation being recorded among the Charter Records of Baltimore city in Charter Record G. R. No. 17, March 11, 1873, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Article 1. The name of the Maryland Prisoners Aid Association of the City of Baltimore is hereby changed to the Prisoners Aid Association of Maryland, and the said body corporate by that name, style and title, is hereby made and declared able and capable to take, receive, hold, possess and acquire by gift, devise, bequest, grant or otherwise, lands, tenements, goods, chattels, estates and property of any kind whatsoever, and the same again to grant, devise, alien or dispose of.

Article 2. The object of this association shall be to promote the temporal and moral welfare of those who are in prisons or other places of confinement or lately discharged therefrom; the improvement of the condition of prisoners, whether detained for trial or finally convicted, or as witnesses; studying the causes and prevention of crime; the support and encouragement of reformed convicts after their discharge by affording them an opportunity of obtaining an honest livelihood and sustaining them in their efforts to reform; to visit the inmates of the asylums, the almshouses, jails, penal, correctional and reformatory institutions of the city of Baltimore and State of Maryland.

Article 3. Its operations shall be carried on throughout the State of Maryland and the city of Baltimore, and its principal offices shall be located in the city of Baltimore.

Article 4. Anyone conforming to its constitution and by-laws may become a member of said association.

Article 5. That said corporation shall have full power and authority to make, give and use a common seal with such device and inscription as said corporation shall adopt, and the same to break, alter and renew at pleasure.

Article 6. That said corporation, by the name, style and title aforesaid shall be able and capable at law or in equity to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, plead and be impleaded in any court or before any judge or justice in any and all manner of suits, complaints, pleas, matters and demands of whatever nature and kind or form there may be, and all and every matter and thing to do in as full and effectual a manner as any other person or persons and body corporate within the State of Maryland can or may.

Article 7. That said corporation shall have power to make, retain and establish a constitution and by-laws for the manage-